

MICK JONES UNVEILS 'ROCK AND ROLL PUBLIC LIBRARY'

Mick Jones Ex Clash man to exhibit accumulated 'stuff' collected over the years

Mick Jones is to display a collection of items gathered from working with The Clash, Big Audio Dynamite and Carbon Silicon in a new exhibition in a South London lock-up from next month.

Presenting the collection as "The Rock & Roll Public Library", items include marketing materials from all of the bands plus related magazines, books instruments, flight cases, posters and stage clothes.

Highlights are likely to be the boxes of boxes of correspondence, photographs and song lyrics.

Jones will show off his hoarded collection at the Chelsea Space in SW1 from March 18 - April 18.
